5. TERMINATION WITH ENROLLED STUDENTS

a. Provide a justification for terminating the program:

The College of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences requests to terminate the M.S. in Community Development. The program was offered at SDSU in collaboration with the Innovative Digital Education Alliance (IDEA). IDEA is a consortium of public universities that offer collaborative online degree and certificate programs in human services and agriculture. This program enrolls a very small number of SDSU students. Over the four-year period from 2020 to 2023, duplicated headcount enrollment has never exceeded five students. The request to terminate the M.S. in Community Development is based on the low program enrollment and the resources would be better deployed elsewhere.

b. What is the plan for completion of the program by current students?

SDSU currently has four students enrolled in the M.S. in Community Development. The students are currently expected to graduate after spring 2025. Per the IDEA policy handbook, institutions must complete their teaching commitments or secure support for
